As a Christian liberal arts university, Mount Vernon Nazarene University is committed to Christian moral and spiritual values. Students in the MVNU community must accept the disciplines of the community in order to achieve the benefits of academic, social, physical, and spiritual life. These include, but are not limited to the following:

- Practicing honesty in academic pursuits and social relationships;
- Abstaining from the use of alcoholic beverages, all forms of tobacco, illegal drugs and narcotics, and any other substance abuse;
- Avoiding entertainment which compromises Christian values, including the viewing of pornographic or promiscuous films or videos, profanity or vulgarity in speech and action, and gambling in any form;
- Refraining from sexual activity with someone other than one's spouse;
- Attending University chapel services as required.
